Selling a home?

When selling your home many questions typically arise...

How many people have toured my home?

What did they think?

When is the next open house scheduled?

How many have we had?

What is going on in the marketplace to affect my home sale?

How often is my home viewed on the internet?

Your sales associate has the answers. When you list your home with Coldwell Banker Howard Perry and Walston, your sales associate enrolls you in MyHomeOnline, an exclusive, custom website which provides you access to information on the selling process of your home 24/7. Simply login to view...

- Appointment information on your home showings, including the date and time and future showings
- Feedback on your home showings
- Email notification of future showings scheduled for your home
- Advertising information as ads are placed on your home for Open Houses in the local newspaper and various other publications.
- Continually updated market data
- Summary information at a glance including, listing price, days on market, number of showings, advertising and marketing efforts, plus much more all updated and easily located in one easy to find place.
- Web hits show the number of times your home has been viewed on hpw.com
